

CWC-MARIN PRESENTS

What's New in Grammar?

Arlene Miller

THE GRAMMAR DIVA

Sunday, February 25, 2018 • 2 pm • Book Passage • 51 Tamal Vista Blvd • Corte Madera

Is anything new in grammar? Have any of the rules changed? What rules can we get away with breaking? Are the rules different for fiction and nonfiction?

Arlene Miller, The Grammar Diva, manages to do what seems impossible: make grammar fun! Even people who think participles and parentheses are boring will be pleasantly surprised!

Arlene will also present historical trivia about the English language; little-known facts about words; and some grammar, punctuation, usage, and pronunciation pet peeves from her blog readers.

Arlene Miller, also known as The Grammar Diva, is the author of ten grammar books, including The Best Little Grammar Book Ever. She also writes a weekly blog post about grammar and anything else to do with words, and copy edits fiction and nonfiction. In 2015 she retired from teaching English after 11 years in the Petaluma Public Schools, and has taught grammar classes at College of Marin and Santa Rosa Junior College.

She has been a featured speaker at Redwood Writers, Napa Writers, and other CWC branches, as well as the Sonoma County Book Festival, Romance Writers of America, College of Marin, and more. Originally from Boston, she lives in Petaluma.
