Craft the Perfect Pitch and Query

with editor TANYA EGAN GIBSON

Sunday, March 25, 2018 • 2 pm • Book Passage • 51 Tamal Vista Blvd • Corte Madera

Perfect your pitch just in time for the Marin Writers Conference in April! Join us for an afternoon of crafting pitches and queries and learn what agents are looking for. Editor and writing consultant Tanya Egan Gibson will help you distill your work into a one-minute pitch that succinctly conveys what your book is about. You'll also learn how to write a great query letter. Whether you're starting your writing journey or have a finished manuscript, having a great pitch and query will help you better understand and define what you are writing, as well as attracting agents and publishers.

Tanya Egan Gibson is the author of the novel How to Buy a Love of Reading (Dutton) and a freelance editor and writing consultant. Her short fiction for young adults and adults has appeared in Cicada and Carve. Her articles have appeared in Writer's Digest, The Writer, and Parents.
